The words “user”, “you”, “your”, and “yours” refer to any person or entity using the Web site or the Web Services.

The words “we”, “our”, “ours” and “us” refer to the Sons of Confederate Veterans and/or our affiliates, vendors and subcontractors including those that design, maintain and support the Web site and Web Services. The term “Web site” refers to the Sons of Confederate Veterans’ Web site at www.makedixiegreatagain.org, www.makedixiegreatagain.com, and www.makedixiegreatagain.net.

The term “Web Services” refers to any and all products and services offered and provided by us, including but not limited to products and services that we provide for free and for sale, information, downloads, user access, user profile and contact information, paper and paperless electronic invoicing and payment processing, billing and payment processing, and one-time, recurring and repetitive invoicing, billing and payment processing.

The Privacy Policy is part of and subject to the General Terms, Conditions, and Policies of the Web site and Web Services. The General Terms, Conditions, and Policies can be found at the Web site.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Generally, we do not sell, trade, loan, lease, or rent your personal information to any external entity or third party, unless your prior permission is obtained through electronic, voice-recorded, or written communication.

We use external entities and third parties for marketing and communication purposes under strict guidelines designed to maintain your confidentiality and that of other users.

We may transfer any or all your information, including personally identifiable and contact information, to outside parties if we believe that doing so is appropriate for compliance with the law, and to enforce our policies, and to protect our rights, property, and safety as well as that of other people and entities.

COMMITMENT TO SECURITY AND BLOCKING FURTHER COMMUNICATIONS

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorized access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect.

To prevent us from contacting you, you must contact the Sons of Confederate Veterans at the address shown below or update your profile at the Web site.

You may re-establish communications with us at any time.

To stop and prevent communications from external entities and third parties that you believe are connected to us, you must contact the offending entity in accordance with their terms and conditions. If you ask us, we will communicate your wishes to such entities, but we cannot and do not guarantee their compliance.

ELECTRONIC “COOKIE” FILES

A “cookie” is a small electronic file from us or from an entity under contract to us, which asks permission to be placed on your electronic device. If you have programmed your electronic device to accept cookies, then you agree that the cookie file may be stored on your device. You are free to program your electronic device to refuse or limit cookie placement, but refusals and limitations could interfere with your use and enjoyment of our Web site and Web Services.

EXTERNAL LINKS

The Web site and Web Services contain links to the websites and electronic services of other people and entities not under our authority or control. A link is a portal to a new electronic address. If you use these links, you leave our Web site and Web Services and move to a new electronic address over which we have no authority or control. We cannot be and are not responsible for your privacy and protection when you leave our Web site and Web Services.

CHANGES TO OUR PRIVACY POLICY

We reserve the right to modify this Privacy Policy from time to time at our sole discretion and without notice. Changes to our Privacy Policy become effective on the date they are posted. Your continued use of our Web site and Web Services will signify your agreement with the revised Privacy Policy.
